ABOUT

Menswear Musings is a trusted resource of style advice, brand reviews and inspiration for the man who wants to refine his style and upgrade his look without chasing trends or dressing like an old man. The site focuses primarily on the ready-to-wear market from makers who are available to purchase online. It promotes a contemporary take on style that's rooted in the classics without being fusty, with tailored clothing as its keystone, and a full range of other styles building out the rest. The site covers most categories of men's clothing beyond tailoring, including casual wear, footwear, accessories and watches.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Mitchell Moss works in the creative field focusing on design, writing, editing and photography. He loves the transformational power and craftsmanship of tailored clothing. He started Menswear Musings as a way to share that passion.

He lives in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area.

Menswear Musings writes honest reviews of makers at a variety of price points. If you're a maker who'd like to have your brand considered for a review by the site, reach out to me at mitch@menswearmusings.com.

Terms of a review: I don't ask for free products in exchange for a positive review. If I receive a product that I'm not excited about in terms of its quality, fit on me or some other aspect of the product, I simply won't publish anything at all (and I will send the product back).

However, I do sponsored partnerships for the brands looking to advertise to my audience (see next page).

PARTNERSHIP CASE STUDY

Here's a brand partnership case study from 2023-24:

Amsterdam-based brand Atelier Munro partnered with me to be a brand ambassador in 2023. I curated a handful of looks from their upcoming seasonal collections, and we embarked on a three-city global photo and video shoot.

The result was a multi-media campaign launched in two installments—Fall/Winter 2023 and Spring/Summer 2024—with video, social and print components, as well as in-person activations both in the U.S. and in Italy during the bi-annual Pitti Uomo tradeshow.

See the first video and interview here: ateliermunro.com/portrait/mitchell-moss

I wrote eight seasonal style tips, which were printed in a limited-run booklet with photos from the campaign, and is available in their retail stores. The tips were published online with the second part of the campaign shoot here: ateliermunro.com/portrait/insights-to-empower-your-style

We hosted a dinner at Coco Lezzone in Florence, during the June 2023 Pitti Uomo tradeshow, and a breakfast to celebrate the launch of the campaigns at la Ménagère in January 2024.

OTHER PARTNERSHIP OPTIONS

Partnerships with Menswear Musings can also be a sponsored post on Instagram and/or on menswearmusings.com, which stays pinned on the feed/website, promoting your brand's product for a week. See current rates here.

Here's an example from 2023:

A custom-shirt company paid for a 2-week sponsorship on Instagram, with two carousels of photos published one week apart (more detail on the schedule of sponsored posts at the link above). The brand created a specific 10% discount code for new customers converted by MM, which is active year-round.

- Carousel 1 reached \approx 18,000 accounts and engaged 640 in the first month
- Carousel 2 reached \approx 75,000 accounts and engaged 1,975 in the first month

Combined, the posts resulted in the brand acquiring 7 new customers in the first month, and an additional 7 the month after that.

Besides the initial 2-post sponsorship, MM frequently tags this brand on regular posts and recommends them, resulting in new customer conversions most months. The brand shares affiliate revenue from each new customer with MM.
